Section 5. The chapter adviser will facilitate all meetings of the faculty council.

ARTICLE 7: Student Membership

Section 1. Membership in a local chapter is an honor bestowed upon a student. Selection for membership is by a faculty council and is based on outstanding scholarship and responsibility. Once selected, members have the responsibility to continue to demonstrate these qualities and to participate in chapter activities to build experience and improve skills in leadership and service.

Section 2. Membership shall be known as active and honorary. Students become active members when selected and inducted into the chapter (see Article 8).

Section 3. The faculty council shall reserve the right to award honorary membership to students who warrant special consideration—including those who receive accommodations for a disability, or foreign exchange students—in recognition of achievement and/or outstanding service rendered to the school in keeping with the purposes of the National Honor Society. The faculty council might also award honorary membership to school officials, principals, teachers, NHS advisers, or other adults. Honorary membership grants recognition without the obligations and full privileges associated with active member status.

Section 4. Dues. The annual individual member dues paid to a chapter, if any, shall not exceed $20 per member per year. The exact amount shall be determined by the faculty council of the chapter and shall be subject to the approval of the principal. (Note: Local chapter member dues are an optional consideration. All chapters are encouraged to take into consideration both local school system policies and the socioeconomic conditions of the student body when considering the creation of individual member dues.)

Section 5. Obligations. Chapter members and their parents will be informed of the obligations of members of the local NEHS chapter before and upon their induction. Members are expected to fulfill all designated obligations which can include, but are not limited to, the following: attending meetings, participating in chapter projects and activities, serving on committees, etc. Failure to fulfill all membership obligations can be grounds for disciplinary actions by the faculty council against an individual member (see Article 9).

Section 6. Transferring membership. Any NEHS member who transfers to another school with an NEHS chapter and brings a letter from the principal or chapter adviser to the new school adviser shall be accepted automatically as a member in the new school's NEHS chapter. Transfer members will work to meet the chapter standards at the new school within one semester in order to retain membership.

ARTICLE 8: Selection of Members

Section 1. Candidacy.

a. Grade Level. To be eligible for membership, the candidate must be a member of those grade levels (grades 4, 5, and 6) designated as eligible in the chapter bylaws. (Note: Local chapters can reduce the number of eligible grade levels to be grades 5 and 6 or 6 only when creating their local selection guidelines.)

b. Enrollment. Candidates must have been enrolled at the school the equivalent of one semester.

(Note: Some candidates may be considered to be ineligible for candidacy because of this semester eligibility policy. Many students, including students of military parents, are required to move with parents or guardians who have been transferred for work. In such cases, the present school principal should seek a recommendation from the previous school principal or other school representative regarding the candidate's eligibility. On the basis of the recommendation of the previous principal, the faculty council may waive the semester regulation.)

c. Scholarship. Candidates must meet or exceed the national minimum standard for scholarship (i.e., academic performance), which is a cumulative scholastic average of at least 85%, B, or 3.0 (on a 4.0 scale) or the equivalent standard of excellence. (Note: In order to reflect higher expectations and standards of excellence for students, local chapters may raise the cumulative GPA standard above the national minimum, apply it fairly and consistently, and include this standard in their locally published selection procedures.)

- d. Candidates who meet the three conditions above (a., b., and c.) shall be evaluated by the faculty council on demonstrated aspects of their personal responsibility as outlined by the chapter.

Section 2. Following review of all relevant information by the faculty council, the selection of each member to the chapter shall be by a majority vote of the faculty council.

Section 3. Candidates selected for membership shall be notified of their selection and inducted at a special ceremony. Candidates who are not selected shall also be notified and, upon request, provided counsel regarding their nonselection. (Note: Students who are candidates but not selected can be considered again in future rounds of selections presuming that all the required conditions are still being met).

Section 4. A description of the selection procedure shall be published in an official school publication that is widely available in a timely fashion to all students and parents of the school. The selection procedure shall be determined by the faculty council, approved by the principal, and shall be consistent with all rules and regulations of NEHS.

Section 5. National Principals Association shall not review the judgment of the faculty council regarding selection of individual members to local chapters.

ARTICLE 9: Disciplinary Actions*

Section 1. The faculty council, in compliance with the rules and regulations of the National Elementary Honor Society, shall delineate the procedures for the discipline of a member of the chapter. A written description of the dismissal procedure shall be available to interested parties. (Note: Faculty councils may always consider disciplinary actions that are less severe than dismissal if circumstances warrant.)

Section 2. Members who fall below the standards that were the basis for their selection shall be promptly warned in writing by the chapter adviser and given a reasonable amount of time to correct the deficiency. In the case of flagrant violation of school rules or the law, a member does not have to be warned.

Section 3. The faculty council shall determine when an individual member has exceeded a reasonable number of warnings.

Section 4. In all cases of pending dismissal (i.e., permanent removal from membership in the chapter), a member shall have a right to a hearing before the faculty council. (Note: This hearing is required and is considered "due process" for all members when first being considered for dismissal.)

Section 5. For purposes of dismissal, a majority vote of the faculty council is required following the completion of the hearing with the member in question (as noted in Section 4).

Section 6. A member who has been dismissed may appeal the decision of the faculty council to the principal and thereafter under the same rules for disciplinary appeals as found in the school district.

Section 7. National Principals Association shall hear no appeals in dismissal cases.

Section 8. Members who resign or are dismissed can be reconsidered for membership upon written request to the chapter adviser.

Individual chapters are encouraged to promote an inclusive approach to membership and to consider age-appropriate, positive disciplinary measures for members rather than resorting to the removal of students from membership. Should it become necessary to consider a member's dismissal, the provisions of this entire article constitute the due process required for all cases.*

ARTICLE 10: Chapter Officers

Section 1. The officers of the chapter, their duties, and the method of their election shall be determined by the chapter, approved by the faculty council and the principal, and described in the chapter bylaws (see Article 14).

Section 2. Officers of the chapter and the chapter adviser shall be known collectively as the executive committee of the chapter.

Section 3. The executive committee shall have general supervision of the affairs of the chapter between its business meetings, make recommendations to the chapter, and determine and perform such other duties as are specified in the chapter bylaws.

All actions and recommendations of the executive committee shall be subject to the review of the chapter membership and faculty council.

ARTICLE 11: Chapter Activities

Section 1. Meetings. Each chapter shall have regular meetings during the school year at times designated by the executive committee and in accordance with school policy and regulations.

- a. The regularity of the meetings (e.g., weekly, monthly, quarterly) shall be designated in the chapter bylaws.

- c. Chapters shall conduct meetings according to Robert's Rules of Order, Newly Revised or other established meeting management system in all points not expressly provided for in the NEHS National Constitution or the chapter bylaws.

Section 2. Projects. Each chapter shall determine one or more projects for each quarter of the school year.

A minimum of four (4) projects per year are required to maintain an active chapter. Of these, a minimum of one (1) project shall be designated as a service project for the school or community. (Note: To facilitate completion of this important chapter obligation, some projects can be completed during regular meetings of the chapter.)

- a. All members shall regularly participate in projects planned for the chapter.
- b. These projects shall have the following characteristics: fulfill a need within the chapter, school, or community; have the support of the administration and the faculty; be appropriate and educationally defensible; and be age-appropriate, well planned, organized, and implemented.

Section 3. Public Relations. Each chapter shall promote and publicize its activities in a positive manner.

ARTICLE 12: Official Emblem*

Section 1. This organization shall have an official emblem.

Section 2. The form and distribution of the emblem and the rules for its use shall be under the exclusive control of the national office of NEHS.

Section 3. Each active or honorary member in good standing with the chapter shall retain the privilege of wearing this emblem. (Note: "Good standing" refers generally to maintaining the standards by which a member was selected, and, in addition, fulfilling all chapter obligations.)

Section 4. Any member who resigns or is dismissed shall return the emblem to the chapter adviser.

Section 5. All emblems and insignia must be procured from National Principals Association.

ARTICLE 13: Colors

The official colors of the National Elementary Honor Society shall be blue and bronze. Local chapters may also adapt their school colors for use in all chapter activities.

ARTICLE 14: Local Chapter Bylaws*

Section 1. Each chapter shall write bylaws to amplify sections of the NEHS National Constitution and to clarify operating procedures of the chapter. Chapter bylaws do not need the approval of the national office but must be consistent with the NEHS National Constitution.

Section 2. The chapter bylaws shall contain information concerning the election and duties of officers, the schedule of meetings, member obligations, dues, chapter activities, and the like.

Chapters needing assistance in the creation of their local chapter bylaws should first review the sample found in the Adviser Resource Center.*
